4. Write-up on Practical Sessions/Field Trips etc:

On the date 26th February, A half day study visit was conducted to explore Maharajdhiraja Lakshmeshwar Singh museum and Raj library of LNMU. Two assignments were given to the participants to discuss about Importance of Library in Research and Historical approach using Museum in social science research.

5. Evaluation by Participants/Resource Persons

(5.1) The summary of the course evaluation by the participants

All the participants were positively appreciative of the course. In general, participants evaluated the course to be insightful, informative and tailored to the needs of researchers. The participants, who were in the initial stages of their Research Designing and Data Collection, reported the course to be highly relevant and helpful. Even the participants who were in the process of Data Analysis remarked the course to be extremely gainful. Participants were also very happy with the accommodations and general hospitality. Almost all of the participants said that they would be enthusiastic to join any similar future endeavor with the team.

(5.2) Feedback and overall performance of the resource persons by the participants

All the Resource Persons were received well by the participants. The participants were satisfied with the contents and lectures provided by all of the resource persons. Some of the resource persons garnered much respect and attention of the participants by their hands on approach and superb teaching skills. Participants were particularly receptive towards the resource persons who provided them with the latest technological advancements and a must-know skills set for a Researcher.

(5.3) Quality and relevance of course contents

The participants were very happy with the course and reported the content to be exceeding expectations. All the participants expressed their satisfaction with the quality of the course contents, especially the e-resources and web-based research techniques. Even though, the participants were in different stages of their Research, all of them acknowledged the course contents to be relevant to not only their studies but also to the contemporary needs of every researcher.

(5.4) Observation/Recommendations of the Resource Person on the programme:

Some Observation/Recommendations course which were given by resource persons are as follows:

- The classes started in time and end also as per schedule.
- The Resource persons were from all over the country and varied interdisciplinary subjects, that enhances the overall effectiveness of the course.

- The hospitality and management was quite good. personal care were taken by course director and co-director of the programme and his/her team.
 - The group of participants were also from diverse disciplines and background; and from different geographical regions (Kashmir to Karnataka) covering various states and parts of country.
6. Course Director's Suggestions/Recommendations

First, I would like to give my regards and thanks to ICSSR for giving me an opportunity to organize this workshop. Hopefully we have done this properly. Our university first time hosted ICSSR sponsored workshop, this is also very happy and proud moment for us. I hope workshop was very helpful for all participants. I have a suggestion for future, please accept some proposal for online workshop, I think this is surely helpful for researcher and also convenient for resource persons.
